

Dire Dawa Industrial Park to Be Inaugurated On Sunday

Addis Ababa, December 11, 2018 – The Dire Dawa Industrial Park will be inaugurated next Sunday, December 16, 2018.

The park, located in the eastern Ethiopia approximately 262 km from Djibouti, will be inaugurated in the presence of senior government officials, including Prime Minister Dr Abiy Ahmed.

Other invited guests from abroad are also expected to attend the event, according to the Ethiopian Industrial Parks Development Corporation.

The Jimma industrial park was inaugurated last Saturday in the presence of the Prime Minister as well as Presidents of Sudan and Djibouti, al-Bashir and Omar Guelleh, respectively.

Ethiopia has built several industrial parks to attract investment.
