

PM. Dr. Abiy Meets with Patrick Gaspard of the Open Society Foundations

Prime Minister Dr. Abiy Ahmed met with Patrick Gaspard of the Open Society Foundations on Tuesday (December 11) here in Addis Ababa. According to the Office of the Prime Minister-Ethiopia , discussions focused on the progress of reforms currently taking place in Ethiopia.

On the occasion, Mr. Gaspard expressed his admiration of the developments underway and vowed the commitment of the Open Society Foundations to support Ethiopia fulfill its democratization objectives, particularly in the areas of justice sector reform and strengthening of institutions.

The Open Society Foundations is an international grant-making network which aims to build vibrant and tolerant democracies whose governments are accountable and open to the participation of all people.