

Sweden Supports Ethiopia's Efforts in Regional Peace, Stability

Ethiopia's State Minister of Foreign Affairs Mrs. Hirut Zemene today met with the Special Envoy for the Horn of Africa of Sweden, Urban Andersson.

During the discussion, Andersson expressed his country's continued commitment to support Ethiopia's efforts in the maintenance of regional peace and stability.

Mrs. Hirut briefed the Special Envoy on the comprehensive political and economic reforms in Ethiopia, further noting the historic rapprochement between Ethiopia and Eritrea and its peace dividend to the region.

In such score, the State Minister called on Swedish support particularly in areas of advancing democratization in Ethiopia.

Discussions also focused on the upcoming International Peace Conference due to be held in Sweden, Stockholm in May 2019.
